

1.) Determine if the description below pertains to Local or Global Communication:

concerned about the flow of information and culture across countries

- A. Global
- B. Local

Answer: Global

2.) Determine if the description below pertains to Local or Global Communication:

includes the use of media as part of a system of news flow, political interaction, and cultural exchange

- A. Global
- B. Local

Answer: Global

3.) Determine if the following statement is true or false based on the discussion on the issues on local and global communication.

Xenophobia refers to the extreme dislike or fear of foreigners because of their unusual appearance.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: False

4.) Determine if the description below pertains to Local or Global Communication:

Considers differences in personality, beliefs, and the background of people in one cultural setting

- A. Local
- B. Global

Answer: Local

5.) Determine if the following statement is true or false based on the discussion on the issues on local and global communication.

Because hate is transmitted through communication, all forms of discrimination are issues in local and global communication.

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: True

6.) Determine if the following statement is true or false based on the discussion on the issues on local and global communication.

Being gender-sensitive is naturally learned and need not be taught in academic institutions nor corporate training.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: False

7.) Determine if the description below pertains to Local or Global Communication:

explores the conventions of multiple cultures to determine the appropriateness of communication

- A. Global
- B. Local

Answer: Global

8.) Determine if the description below pertains to Local or Global Communication:

advancement in technology is credited for its drastic development

- A. Global
- B. Local

Answer: Global

9.) Determine if the following statement is true or false based on the discussion on the issues on local and global communication.

East Asian immigrants are the only ones targeted by Xenophobia.

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: False

10.) Determine if the description below pertains to Local or Global Communication:

the term used to describe ways to connect and mobilize across geographic, political, economic, social, and cultural divides

- A. Global
- B. Local

Answer: Global